- (a) use the Confidential Information only for the performance of the Agreement ("Purpose");

- (a) give Honeywell prompt written notice of the request and a reasonable opportunity to object to the disclosure and seek a protective order or appropriate remedy; and
- (b) disclose Confidential Information only to the extent required.

5.3 Breach of Obligation. Customer agrees that a breach of the confidentiality obligations under this Section will cause irreparable damage for which money damages will not be fully adequate, and Honeywell would be entitled to seek injunctive relief, in addition to any other legal remedies.

Honeywell shall have the right to terminate the Agreement if Customer has not fully remediated the unsafe condition within sixty (60) days of discovery.

7.5 Customer is responsible for the containment of any and all refrigerant stored on or about the premises. Customer accepts all responsibility for and agrees to indemnify Honeywell against any and all claims, damages, or causes of action that arise out of the storage, consumption, loss and/or disposal of refrigerant, except to the extent Honeywell has brought refrigerant onsite and is directly and solely negligent for its mishandling.

8.1 Limited Warranty . Customer's exclusive remedies and Honeywell's sole liability as to any warranty claim on any product sold in connection with the Agreement is as set forth in this section. Such remedies are in lieu of any other liability or obligation of Honeywell, including without limitation any liability or obligation for damage, loss, or injury (whether direct, indirect, exemplary, special, consequential, punitive, or incidental) arising out of or in connection with the delivery, use, or performance of the products or services. Credit, repair, or replacement (at Honeywell's option) is the sole remedy provided hereunder. No extension of this warranty will be binding upon Honeywell unless set forth in writing and signed by a Honeywell authorised representative.

8.2 Product Warranty Terms. Subject to compliance with this Section 8, Honeywell will replace or repair any product Honeywell provides under the Agreement that fails within the warranty period of one (1) year because of defective workmanship or materials, except to the extent the failure results from Customer negligence, fire, lightning, water damage, or any other cause beyond the control of Honeywell. This warranty is effective as of the date of Customer acceptance of the product or the date Customer begins beneficial use of the product, whichever occurs first, and shall terminate and expire one (1) year after such effective date. Honeywell's sole obligation, and Customer's sole remedy, under this warranty is repair or replacement, at Honeywell's election, of the applicable defective products within the one (1) year warranty period. All products repaired or replaced, if any, are warranted only for the remaining and unexpired portion of the original one (1) year warranty period.

8.5 Procedure for Warranty Claim. Upon receipt of any such Product during the applicable Warranty Period, Honeywell shall, at its expense, (i) examine the product to verify the alleged defect, (ii) in Honeywell's sole discretion, credit Customer or repair or replace any defective Product, including shipment of such replacement or repaired Product back to Customer (at Honeywell's expense). Honeywell will credit Customer for its return shipping costs for any defective Products, but Customer will be responsible for paying any customs or import duties payable upon receipt of any repaired or replacement Products and also paying Honeywell a standard testing charge for any Products not found to be defective.

8.6 Warranty disclaimer. Except as expressly provided in this Section, Honeywell makes no representations or warranties, whether written, express, implied, statutory or otherwise, and hereby disclaims all representations and warranties, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for particular purpose and any and all warranties regarding hazardous substances or mould. Customer acknowledges and agrees that equipment or materials purchased by Customer under the Agreement may contain, be contained in, incorporated into, attached to or packaged together with the products manufactured by a third party. Third party products are generally not covered by this Section and Honeywell makes no representations or warranties regarding any third party products. However, Honeywell shall, at Customer's request, assign to Customer any and all manufacturer's or installer's warranties for equipment or materials not manufactured by Honeywell and provided as part of the Services, to the extent that such third-party warranties are assignable and extend beyond the one (1) year limited warranty set forth in this Section.

9. INDEMNITY

Customer agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Honeywell and its officers, directors, employees, sub-contractors, Affiliates (as defined in Section 24.3) and agents from and against any and all actions, lawsuits, losses, damages, liabilities, claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) caused by, arising out of or relating to Customer's impediment of the delivery of the Services, breach or alleged breach of the Agreement or the negligence or willful misconduct (or alleged negligence or willful misconduct) of Customer or any other person under Customer's control or for whom Customer is responsible.

Without limiting the foregoing, to the fullest extent allowed by law, Customer shall indemnify and hold Honeywell and each other indemnitee harmless from and against any and all claims and costs of whatever nature, including but not limited to, consultants' and legal fees, damages for bodily injury and property damage, fines, penalties, cleanup costs and costs associated with delay or work stoppage, that in any way results from or arises under the breach of the representations and warranties of customer in Section 8, the existence of Mould or a hazardous substance at a site, or the occurrence or existence of the situations or conditions described in Section 7, whether or not customer provides Honeywell advance notice of the existence or occurrence and regardless of when the hazardous substance or occurrence is discovered or occurs. Customer may not enter into any settlement or consent to any judgment without the prior written approval of each indemnitee. This Section 9 shall survive termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, and except to the extent otherwise not permitted by law, (i) in no event shall Honeywell be liable for any incidental, consequential, special, punitive, exemplary, statutory, or indirect damages, loss of profits, revenues, or use, or the loss or corruption of data or unauthorised access to or use or misappropriation of data by third parties, even if informed of the possibility of any of the foregoing, and (ii) the aggregate liability of Honeywell for any claims arising out of or related to the Agreement will in no case exceed the annual Price (as identified on the Agreement price schedule) for the particular Product or Service(s) from which the claim arises. To the extent permitted by applicable law, these limitations and exclusions will apply whether liability arises from breach of contract, indemnity, warranty, tort, operation of law, or otherwise.

11. EXCUSABLE DELAYS

Honeywell is not liable for damages caused by delay or interruption in Services due to fire, flood, corrosive substances in the air, strike, lockout, disputes with workmen, inability to obtain material or services, power shortages, commotion, war, acts of God, the presence of Hazardous Substances or Mould, or any other cause beyond Honeywell's reasonable control. Should any part of any system or any equipment be damaged by fire, water, lightning, acts of God, the presence of Hazardous Substances or Mould, third parties or any other cause beyond the control of Honeywell, any repairs or replacement will be paid for by Customer. In the event of any such delay, date of shipment or performance will be extended by a period equal to the time lost by reason of such delay, and Honeywell will be entitled to recover from Customer its reasonable costs, overhead, and profit arising from such delay. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, the effects of which cannot be foreseen, the parties agree that Honeywell shall be entitled to an equitable extension of time to deliver or perform its work and appropriate additional compensation to the extent Honeywell's delivery or performance, or the delivery or performance of its suppliers and/or subcontractors, is in any way delayed, hindered or otherwise affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

12. PATENT INDEMNITY

12.1 Subject to the limitation of liability set forth in Section 10 of the Agreement, Honeywell shall, at its expense, defend or, at its option, settle any suit that may be instituted against Customer for alleged infringement of any patents related to any hardware or software manufactured and provided by Honeywell under the Agreement ("the equipment"), provided that (a) such alleged infringement consists only in the use of such equipment by itself and not as part of, or in combination with, any other devices, parts or software not provided by Honeywell hereunder, (b) Customer gives Honeywell immediate notice in writing of any such suit and permits Honeywell, through counsel of its choice, to answer the charge of infringement and defend such suit, and (c) Customer gives Honeywell all needed information, assistance and authority, at Honeywell's expense, to enable Honeywell to defend such suit.

12.2 If such a suit has occurred, or in Honeywell's opinion is likely to occur, Honeywell may, at its election and expense: (a) obtain for Customer the right to continue using such equipment; (b) replace, correct or modify it so that it is not infringing; or if neither (a) nor (b) is reasonable, in Honeywell's sole judgment, then (c) remove such equipment and grant Customer a credit therefor, as depreciated.

12.3 In the case of a final award of damages in any such suit, Honeywell will pay such award. Honeywell will not, however, be responsible for any settlement made without its written consent.

12.4 This Section 12 states Honeywell's total liability and Customer's sole remedy for any actual or alleged infringement of any patent by Honeywell relating to the Agreement.

13. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

13.1 If a dispute arises out of or relates to the Agreement, a party to the Agreement may not commence any court or arbitration proceedings related to the dispute unless it has complied with the provisions of this Clause 13, except to seek urgent interlocutory relief.

13.2 A party claiming that a dispute has arisen must give written notice to the other party specifying the nature of the dispute. On receipt by the other Party of the notice, the matter must be referred to designated representatives for resolution.

13.3 If the designated representatives are unable to resolve the dispute within ten (10) business days the Parties may refer the dispute to senior management (or their nominee) of each Party for resolution.

13.4 If senior management (or their nominee) cannot resolve the dispute within ten (10) business days, the Parties will seek to resolve the matter by mediation in accordance with the Centre for Dispute Resolution (CEDR) Model Mediation Procedure. In the event that this is unsuccessful then a party may choose to commence arbitration or court proceedings.

15. COVERAGE

15.1 Customer agrees to provide Honeywell access to all Covered Equipment. Honeywell will be free to start and stop all primary equipment incidental to the operation of the mechanical, control, automation, and life safety system(s) as arranged with Customer's representative.

15.2 It is understood that the repair, replacement, and emergency service provisions apply only to the Covered Equipment included in the List of Covered Equipment (if any and only to the extent expressly provided in the Work Scope Documents). Repair or replacement of non-maintainable parts of the system such as, but not limited to, ductwork, piping, shell and tube (for boilers, evaporators, condensers, and chillers), unit cabinets, boiler refractory material, heat exchangers, insulating material, electrical wiring, hydronic and pneumatic piping, structural supports and other non-moving parts, is not included under the Agreement. Costs to repair or replace such non-maintainable parts will be the sole responsibility of Customer.

15.3 Honeywell will not reload software, nor make repairs or replacements necessitated by reason of negligence or misuse of equipment by persons other than Honeywell or its employees, or caused by lightning, electrical storm, or other adverse weather or by any other cause beyond Honeywell's control. Honeywell will provide such services at Customer's request and at an additional charge.

15.4 Honeywell may install communication or diagnostic devices and/or software to enhance system operation and support. Upon termination of this Agreement, Honeywell may remove these devices and software and return the system to its original operation. Customer agrees to provide, at its sole expense, connection to the Internet and switched telephone network for such devices and/or software.

15.5 Honeywell will review the Services delivered under the Agreement on an annual basis, unless otherwise noted.

15.6 The Agreement assumes that the systems and/or equipment included in the List of Covered Equipment are in maintainable condition. If repairs are necessary, in Honeywell's sole judgment, upon inspection or seasonal start-up or otherwise, repair charges will be submitted for approval to Customer. Should these charges be declined, those systems and equipment will be eliminated from coverage under the Agreement and the Price adjusted accordingly.

15.7 In the event that the system or any equipment component thereof is altered, modified, changed or moved, the Agreement may be immediately adjusted or terminated, at Honeywell's sole option. Honeywell is not responsible for any damages resulting from such alterations, modifications, changes, or movement.

15.8 Honeywell is not responsible for maintaining a supply of, furnishing and/or replacing lost or needed refrigerants not otherwise expressly required under the Agreement. Customer is solely responsible for the cost of material and labour of any such refrigerant not otherwise provided for under the Agreement at current market rates.

15.9 Maintenance, repairs, and replacement of equipment parts and components are limited to using commercially reasonable efforts to restore to proper working condition. Honeywell is not obligated to provide replacement software, equipment, components, and/or parts that represent a betterment or capital improvement to Customer's system(s) hereunder.

15.10 Unless otherwise specified, Customer retains all responsibility for maintaining LANs, WANs, leased lines, and/or other communication mediums incidental or essential to the operation of the system(s) or equipment found included in the Covered Equipment.

15.11 Customer will promptly notify Honeywell of any malfunction in the system(s) or Covered Equipment covered under the Agreement that comes to Customer's attention.

16. TERMS OF PAYMENT

16.1 Subject to Honeywell's approval of Customer's credit as applicable and unless otherwise agreed in writing, Customer will pay or cause to be paid to Honeywell the full Price for the Services as specified above in the Agreement. Unless stated otherwise in the Agreement, Honeywell will submit annual invoices to Customer in advance for Services to be performed during the subsequent billing period, and payment shall be due within thirty (30) days after Customer's receipt of each such invoice. Payments for Services past due more than five (5) days shall accrue interest from the due date to the date of payment at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month, compounded monthly, or the highest legal rate then allowed, whichever is lower. Customer will pay all legal and/or collection fees incurred by Honeywell in collecting any past due amounts.

16.2 Suspension of work. If Honeywell, having performed work per Agreement requirements, does not receive payment within thirty (30) calendar days after submission of a Honeywell invoice, Honeywell may suspend work, on providing seven (7) days' notice of its intent to do so, until Customer provides remedy.

16.3 Payments must be in accordance with the “Remit To” field on each invoice. If Customer makes any unapplied payment and fails to reply to Honeywell’s request for instruction on allocation within seven (7) calendar days, Honeywell may set off such unapplied cash amount against any Customer past-due invoice(s) at its sole discretion. An unapplied payment shall mean payment(s) received from Customer without adequate remittance detail to determine what invoice the payment(s) shall be applied to.

16.4 Disputes as to invoices must be accompanied by detailed supporting information and are deemed waived 15 calendar days following the invoice date. Honeywell reserves the right to correct any inaccurate invoices. Any corrected invoice must be paid by the original invoice payment due date or the issuance date of the corrected invoice, whichever is later.

16.5 The remedies described in this Section 16 are in addition to those available at law or in equity. Honeywell may re-evaluate Customer’s credit standing at any time and modify or withdraw credit. Customer may not set off any invoiced amounts against sums that are due from Honeywell.

17. PRICE ADJUSTMENT

Honeywell may annually adjust the amounts charged to Customer under the Agreement, and Customer will pay to Honeywell such adjusted amounts in accordance with Section 16 and the other applicable provisions of the Agreement. Notwithstanding the annual Price adjustment, and without limiting any other provision of the Agreement, Honeywell may, from time to time and in its sole discretion, issue surcharges on the Agreement in order to mitigate and/or recover increased operating costs arising from or related to: (a) foreign currency exchange variation; (b) increased cost of third-party content, labour and materials; (c) impact of duties, tariffs, and other government actions; and (d) increases in freight, labour, material or component costs, and increased costs due to inflation (collectively, “Economic Surcharges”). Economic Surcharge shall not exceed 15% from the total Price. Such Economic Surcharge does not apply if the Agreement is to be delivered upon within four (4) weeks after the Agreement has been concluded.] Honeywell will invoice Customer, through a revised or separate invoice, and Customer agrees to pay for the Economic Surcharges pursuant to the standard payment terms in the Agreement. To the extent permitted by law, if a dispute arises with respect to Economic Surcharges, and that dispute remains open for more than fifteen (15) days, Honeywell may, in its sole discretion, withhold performance and future shipments or combine any other rights and remedies as may be provided under the Agreement or permitted by law until the dispute is resolved. The terms of this Section 17 shall prevail in the event of inconsistency with any other terms in the Agreement. Any Economic Surcharges, as well as the timing, effectiveness, and method of determination thereof, will be separate from and in addition to any changes to pricing that are affected by any other provisions in the Agreement.

18. TERMINATION

18.1 Subject to the next sentence, Customer may terminate the Agreement for cause if Honeywell demonstrably defaults in the performance of any material term of the Agreement, or fails or neglects to carry forward the Services in accordance with the Agreement, after giving Honeywell written notice of its intent to terminate. If, within thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice, Honeywell fails to cure or perform its obligations, Customer may, by written notice to Honeywell, terminate the Agreement.

18.2 Honeywell may terminate this Agreement for cause (including, but not limited to, Customer's failure to make payments as agreed herein) after giving Customer written notice of its intent to terminate. If, within thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice, Customer fails to make the payments then due, or otherwise fails to cure or perform its obligations, Honeywell may, by written notice to Customer, terminate the Agreement and recover from Customer payment for Services performed and for losses sustained for materials, tools, construction equipment and machinery, including but not limited to, reasonable overhead, profit and applicable damages.

18.3 Cancellation. The Agreement may be canceled at Honeywell's option in the event Honeywell equipment on Customer's premises is destroyed or substantially damaged. Likewise, the Agreement may be cancelled at Customer's option in the event Customer's premises are destroyed. In the event of such cancellation, neither party shall be liable for damages or subject to any penalty, except that Customer will remain liable for Services rendered to the date of cancellation.

18.4 Insolvency. Either Party may terminate the Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party upon the occurrence of any insolvency or suspension of the other Party's operations or any petition filed or proceeding made by or against the other Party under any applicable law relating to bankruptcy, arrangement, reorganisation, receivership, or assignment for the benefit of creditors or other similar proceedings.
